

West Met 12 Dundas 18-7-15

Saturday last saw a healthy number of Girraween athletes tackle the challenging Upjohn Park course at Dundas. The conditions were very soft in places and it proved to be a good test for all concerned.

The 2.5km course saw Ed Bratovic lead Girraween's runner's home followed by Greg Sargeant, Cristobel Corvalan and Claudio Corvalan who all put in mighty performances. Given that this was 500m longer than normal, for the West Met short event on a testing course, the efforts of younger athletes including Daniel and Ben O'Donnell, Hayley and Zach Zammit, Chloe Grogan and Laura Corvalan had much to admire as these athletes all stuck to their task well in completing this run. The effort of Kristy Zammit as her comeback gathers pace also was a highlight of the afternoon.

Ed Bratovic was once again to the fore in leading the Girraween contingent in the 5km event with a very slick time. He was closely followed by Clive Kidson and Steve Parkins who continued their great recent form with very solid performances. David Perry continues to grow stronger each week and his effort was notable to.

The indefatigable Lisa Grant led Girraween's brave contingent across the line in the 7.5km event and her effort had much to admire about it. Rod Zammit also showed glimpses of his strong recent form with a fine run in this event. The rest Girraween's runners in this run in Steve Parkins, Stephen O'Donnell and Rob Eager all ran solidly at the end of a long day.

Thank you to our volunteers who assisted in any way last Saturday. Your efforts as always are appreciated. Results follow:
