West Met 3 Concord 9-4-16

The 3rd West Met series of races for the 2016 winter season saw a healthy number of Girraween runners tackling the deceptively challenging Queen Elizabeth Park course at Concord on another warm autumn afternoon.

There were a number of fine performances in the 2km event with Wayne Thurlow leading the way for the Girraween contingent closely followed by Ed Bratovic and David Perry. Daniel O'Donnell was the first of the younger Girraween contingent across the line with another strong performance and he is going from strength to strength each week. Cristobel Corvalan also put in another eye-catching performance.

The middle distance event saw the top three Girraween places replicated as the 2km event with Wayne, Ed and David filling the top three positions. These three gentlemen are in rare form at the moment and they are amongst the most consistent of Girraween's performer's week in and week out. Adriana and Renata Busic made their 2016 West Met debut in this 4km event and ran very consistently. Adriana's run was a fine one and it is to be hoped that she can continue this rare form throughout the 2016 West Met season.

The 8km event saw Wayne Thurlow, Ed Bratovic and Rod Zammit cross the line in very solid sub forty minute times. It was also Wayne, Ed and David Perry's third run of the afternoon, another great feat of endurance given the warm temperatures. Michael Free was welcomed back for his 2016 West Met debut and hung in well along with Rob Eager to get the job done well.

It had been another fine afternoon of athletic endeavour and many thanks to our volunteers who assisted David Archbold in anyway throughout the afternoon's competition. Your efforts are noticed. Thanks guys. Results follow:
